

WXDU specializes in an eclectic sound created by our DJs, who produce audio art from many genres of music. Most of our airtime is filled by free-form shows, with styles ranging from twang to two-step, indie rock to Indian and hip-hop to hardcore. We encourage our DJs to develop their own musical personalities, allowing them the opportunity to educate themselves in many genres while passing that knowledge on to our listeners. Check out our variety of specialty programming below. Enjoy!

Local & Live: WXDU is committed to nurturing the local music scene, and Ross Grady is our resident guru of all local music. He presents the best and brightest local bands live on Sundays from 5-7 p.m. Ross also features new recordings from local bands on his show. Go to trianglerock.com for sound clips and Ross's picks of upcoming events.

World: Yes, it's a big world of music out there. That's why WXDU has four rotating DJs to bring the world to you every Saturday from 1-3 p.m. An amazing array of cultures are represented on this show from African, Indian, Indonesian, to Cuban.

RPM/Dance: Every Friday at 8 p.m., 'XDU assaults Durham with two hours of drum & bass. Host Cooper mailorders new releases that can't be found in the Triangle and regularly brings guest DJs.

Youth Voice Radio: WXDU is proud to sponsor YVR, a weekly program airing every Saturday evening from 5-6 p.m. Run entirely by high school students, this show offers the opportunity for enthusiastic teens to share their viewpoints and music with our listeners.

Space: Marty hosts "New Frontiers" from 10 a.m.-noon Saturdays. This is two hours of space music to ease you into the weekend—almost-ambient, almost-trance, almost-folk, and definitely-refreshing.

Jazz: WXDU presents six unique Jazz Shows, 6-8 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m.-noon on Sundays. Mon. 6-8 p.m.: Phil plays the best of straight-ahead jazz in the "Jazz Zone." Tues. 6-8 p.m.: Walt Davis, founder of the Alliance of Improvised Music (AIM), pushes the boundaries with free, improvised, and avant-garde jazz. Wed. 6-8 p.m.: Santa Salsera hosts the Latin show, your one stop for salsa, cumbia, merengue, and all modern Latin music. Thurs. 6-8 p.m.: Ella, Billie, Armstrong, Sinatra, Darrin, Prima... Join Christa in "Divaville" to hear all of the Crooners. Sun. 10 a.m.-noon: Professor Paul Jeffries holds jazz class for his students and for you!

Urban/Hip-Hop: Real hip-hop from underground and local artists. Call in for shout-outs and listen for local events. We're the only place for serious hip-hop fans to tune in. Sun./Mon. 11 p.m.-2 a.m.: Start the week off right with Bro-Rabb. Tues. 12-3 a.m.: DJ Bum Rush takes the mic. Fri. 12-3 a.m.: Torrance T. spins dancehall reggae. Fri. 10 p.m.-12 a.m.: Check out DJ Samps from Madd Wax!

Country/Twang: This ain't Nashville, but 'XDU isn't hurting for country music—we've got plenty of twang, roots, Americana, alt-country or whatever you want to call it. Sat. 8-10 p.m.: Rick Cornell's first hour is "Border Radio," the best of alt-country. The second hour is "NC Soul City." Sun. 8-10 a.m.: MarkThomas hosts "A Broken Heart and a Glass of Beer," which explores classic country music. Sun. 12-3 p.m.: Steve Gardner serves up a great mix of roots and twang music with frequent live guests! Sun. 7-9 p.m.: Dave Tilley has been hosting the "Bull City Cosmic Hoedown" which features a unique blend of roots music with live guests Sunday nights.

Sportz: Every Sunday night from 10-11 p.m., the WXDU sports crew bursts onto the air with an hour of high-energy discussion about the latest Duke sports news. Listeners are encouraged to e-mail or call in and opine about sports events and personalities. Visits from Duke sports celebrities are not uncommon!
